From: Police On Target
To: Artificio, Bernard (SHF)
Subject: Man Found Guilty of Murdering Off-Duty Officer During Robbery
Date: Friday, March 01, 2019 2:05:20 PM

This message is from outside the City email system. Do not open links or attachments from untrusted sources.

Mar 1, 2019

View online version

ONTARGET FRIDAY

Man Found Guilty in Murder of Chicago Police Officer in 2011

The man accused of shooting and killing Officer Clifton Lewis during a 2011 robbery at convenience store has been found guilty of first-degree murder, attempted murder, and armed robbery.

READ MORE

Tennessee Lawmakers to Police: Turn on Body Cameras or Face Felony Charges

Under the proposed law, officers would face felony charges for intentionally disabling a body camera.

READ MORE

German Police Cadet Accidentally Shoots, Kills Fellow Trainee

The police cadet whose firearm discharged may face the charge of negligent homicide.

READ MORE

Free Speech, Violent Threats, and Learning from a Misguided

Professor

Professor Joshua Clover—who teaches English and comparative literature at University of California at Davis, and according to his official bio, specializes in Marxism and "the end of capitalism"—said in an interview published in early 2016, "People think that cops need to be reformed. They need to be killed."

READ MORE

Editor David Griffith

Jussie Smollett Case: In the Trick Bag

The Jussie Smollett case put the Chicago PD in an untenable situation, and it may not be over.

READ MORE

(Video) Police Pursuits: California Supreme Court Ruling in City of Gardena Case

Attorney Missy O'Linn discusses the unanimous decision by the California Supreme Court that allows departments to escape liability if their written policies mandate 100% officer certification.

READ MORE

Utah Agency Faces Decertification Amid Misconduct Allegations

The Brigham Young University Police Department is facing decertification after failing to investigate alleged misconduct by one of its officers.

READ MORE

New York Officer's Ballistic Vest Saves Him from Accidental Discharge

An officer with the Ellenville (NY) Police Department reportedly shot himself in his chest—the bullet was stopped by his body armor—as he attempted to flee from an attack by a rabid fox.

READ MORE

Kansas Department Welcomes New K-9 to the Ranks

The Andover (KS) Police Department officially welcomed into its ranks K-9 "Roko" on Thursday.

READ MORE

Rural Washington Department Launches Online Crime Reporting System

Residents of a small Washington town on the Columbia River now have a new way to report crimes to their local police agency—an online reporting system that goes live on March 1, 2019.

READ MORE

North Carolina Department to Host Dodgeball Tournament for Special Olympics

The event is the result of one officer having had the experience of watching a dodgeball completion on television and bringing the idea to one of the officers in charge of the department's Special Olympics fundraising events.

READ MORE

FREE WHITEPAPERS

Special Report: Mission Critical Communications

Special Report: Keeping Schools Safe

POLICE MAGAZINE

You are currently subscribed as bernard.artificio@sfgov.org. Manage your email preferences.

Bobit Business Media, 3520 Challenger Street, Torrance CA 90503

Contact Us | Privacy Policy | Unsubscribe